

Calalta is pleased to partner with Manon Perron for our next skating clinic!

Manon Perron is the coach of Joannie Rochette, a Canadian champion, a gold medalist at the World Championships and an Olympics bronze medalist. Manon has been performing her duties for more than 30 years and is NCCP Level 4 certified. She has enjoyed tremendous success with her skaters at all levels, ranging from section championships to international competitions. She won the Skate Canada Competitive Coach of the Year Award in 2007 and 2010, and was the first winner of GM Canada’s Making Dreams Possible program, as Joannie Rochette’s coach. Manon is currently giving seminars to coaches and athletes all over Canada and internationally. She is also a mentor coach in Skate Canada’s High Performance Mentorship Program and works directly with Calalta coaches Anabelle & Cody Hay.

CALALTA

Please ensure you are at COP at least 15 minutes PRIOR to your child skating. This allows time for a quick warm up and to get your skates on. Parents are more than welcome to watch from the bleachers located on the Main floor of COP, next to the Garden Café.

Check In will be on the Event level (ice level) outside the dressing room.

Registration is open now! Space is limited to 18 spots on each session!

Once registered, there are no refunds.
