Synchro Anyone?

Synchro – one of the 4 disciplines of figure skating (singles, pairs and dance being the other three) is the fastest growing around! Does your skater want to compete at Skate Canada Nationals and Internationally? Did you know Calalta is running a high-performance Junior synchronized skating team? It's not too late to join!

This team will be representing Calalta and the Alberta Section again at this year's Canadian Tire National Skating Championships held in January 2024 with singles, ice dance and pairs!! The Junior team will be working with Calalta Director of Skating - Tyler Myles & Synchronized

Skating World Champion - Jennifer Crichton, Nexxice Senior Coach, and will exclusively train out of Calgary.

If you are:

- between the ages of 13-19
- Star 7 - Gold and/or a competitive skater
- wanting to travel & compete across Canada
- looking for a new challenge & the opportunity to compete at a National level this could be your chance!

Also, did you know that Calalta has 9 different synchro teams that offer programming to all skaters & levels! Beginner, Elementary, Juvenile, Pre Novice, Novice (National level team), Junior, Open (National level team) and Adult I & III teams!

Spring skills and tryouts for all teams are coming up in May! Don't miss out on the opportunity to compete at a Provincial and National level!
